

131 Prince Street ORANGE NSW

4 1 2

This beautiful home built sometime around 1932 is set on 1,400m2 and just 3 blocks to the CBD. The home as stated has 4 generous bedrooms two beautiful living areas and a well proportioned kitchen and dining area. There is a study or storage room off the main living area as well for those that wish to have an office. The house boasts a beautiful northern aspect, that captures the sunlight, and makes the family room a delightful area to be in. The lane way at the rear of the property allows for access to the garages and carport. This home is ready to go, as it sits on two lots making subdivision an easy option if you wish to go down this path. This is a great property and one which we know you will love.
