Characterised by elegant styling both inside and out, this family home offers immense appeal and is located in a quiet, family friendly cul-de-sac. The light-filled interiors are in excellent condition, with a generous layout that includes a separate lounge and dining room along with a renovated open-plan kitchen with stainless steel appliances and family room that flows onto your north facing covered entertaining area. The home also features three generous bedrooms, an enormous master ensuite, polished hardwood floors, central gas heating along with a reverse cycle split system. This beautiful residence is surrounded by private established gardens, treetop views and is well worth an inspection. Floor plan available on request.
