

131 Prince Street Orange NSW

4 1 1

This beautiful home built sometime around 1932 is set on a great block and just 3 blocks to the CBD. The home as stated has 4 generous bedrooms two beautiful living areas and a well proportioned kitchen and dining area. There is a study or storage room off the main living area as well for those that wish to have an office. The house boasts a beautiful northern aspect, that captures the sunlight, and makes the family room a delightful area to be in. The lane way at the rear of the property allows for access to backyard and carport. This is a great property and one which we know you will love. Call today to inspect anytime. Floor Plan available on request.
